WELCOME

The Charles River Chorale welcomes everyone here tonight to the 27th Annual Holiday Concert. We want to say "Thank You" for the generous support extended to us throughout the year.

Roy S. Kelley, our Founder and Artistic Director, has once again reached into his bag of goodies and come up with an assortment of Holiday cheer and good wishes to get you in the mood. Remember to join in the Sing-A-Long and let your voice be heard.

During the Concert, we ask you to support our Raffle which helps Millis students with music scholarships. After the concert please join us in the Cafeteria for our Silent Auction to choose some last minute gifts, and for some great refreshments while you relax and chat with friends and family.

Enjoy the Concert & Happy Holidays to All!

ROY S. KELLEY is Founder & Artistic Director of the Charles River Chorale.

Membership is comprised of singers from many towns in the Charles River area. This Fall is the Chorale's 27th Season performing for their local audiences. The Chorale was formed in 1985 to celebrate Millis' Centennial.

A graduate of the University of Vermont, Roy served the educational field as a music specialist for 31 years. On the Masters level, he has studied choral conducting with Lorna Cooke de Varon at the New England Conservatory of Music.

Roy has served as President of the New England Chapter of the American Orff-Schulwerk Assoc. and is also a member of MENC as well as the American Guild of Organists, and the National Assoc. for Music Education.

Roy began his 11th season as Director of the Snug Harbor Community Chorus in Duxbury, MA. He now has choruses on both sides of Route 128.

Roy is in his 17th year as the Organist/Choirmaster for The Parish of St. John the Evangelist in Duxbury, MA., where in addition to his duties as Organist, he also directs the Senior, Junior and Youth Choirs, as well as giving private instruction in piano and voice.

In October, Roy attended his 50th Class Reunion from the University of Vermont and performed with two of his classmates at the Reunion Banquet. The trio- the Festival Minstrels - hadn't seen one another since their days at UVM - circa 1961, and performed as if they had done a show the night before.

This summer Roy attended the American Choral Directors Annual Summer Conference at Gordon College in Wenham, MA. Several selections from the Summer package are in tonight's program

*The Charles River Chorale would like to thank the Millis School Committee,
Millis High School and
The Church of Christ

BILL GEHA is a pianist and composer versatile in both the classical and jazz worlds and is heard regularly throughout the New England region. A pianist with wide-ranging and adaptable performance experience, he has appeared in concert hall, theater, and stage shows, as well as providing music for special occasions, wedding ceremonies/receptions and corporate gatherings.

Recent projects include that of Musical Director for the Opera Factory in 2008, an educational program for twenty young artists made possible through a collaboration of Opera Boston and the Cloud Foundation. As a solo pianist, Mr. Geha performed the score to the film Beyond Belief, chosen in 2007 to premier at the Tribeca Film Festival in New York City. In the same year Mr. Geha's compositions were featured in full recital at the New England Conservatory in Boston.

He has recently been commissioned by New England Voices to write a song cycle based on Shaker themes to be arranged for both professional and youth singers, for performance and subsequent recording. He is a lifelong educator having spent ten years teaching at Harvard University. Mr. Geha holds a Master's of Music degree in Jazz Studies, and a Doctorate in Composition, both from the New England Conservatory of Music.
