Chorale Friends

Sandy Swanson

Welcome

The Charles River Chorale welcomes you to "29 Years To Bethlehem" our 29th Annual Holiday Concert. It has been a long road to get to this point and has been an amazing journey for everyone involved. 'Thank You' to all our sponsors and those who have supported the Chorale this year to be able to bring you with us along the way.

Roy S. Kelley and the Chorale are excited to perform and bring you on our journey as we travel through the winter season. We hope this music will be a gift of good will and good cheer that you will carry with you throughout the Holiday Season, and into the New Year.

Please remember to visit and support our sponsors, donors, and those who advertise in the program. The Chorale also has a Raffle, with some great prizes, that funds our music scholarship for two Millis students., and a Silent Auction that helps to fund the Chorale and our community outreach programs. We are looking forward to help sponsor a Youth Choir through the Millis Parks & Recreation program in the coming year. All support is welcome.

Enjoy the musical journey that we have prepared for you, your family and friends.

Happy Holidays

Greg Quilop, CRC Chair

Roy S. Kelley is a graduate of the University of Vermont. He served the educational field in Vermont and Massachusetts as a music specialist for 31 years. On the Masters level, he studied choral conducting with Lorna Cooke de Varon at the New England Conservatory of Music. Roy served as President of the New England Chapter of the American Orff-Schulwerk Association having received his Orff Teaching Certificate from the Boston Conservatory. He is also a member of the American Choral Directors' Association, NAFME (National Association for Music Education) as well as the American Guild of Organists.

As you know, since 2001, Roy is also Artistic Director of the Snug Harbor Community Chorus in Duxbury, MA.

He is in his 19th year as Organist/ Choirmaster for the Parish of St. John the Evangelist Church in Duxbury, where he directs the Senior and Youth Choirs.

During his teaching days, Roy was guest conductor for All-State (RI) and District Festivals (NH & MA), as well as an adjudicator for several Massachusetts District Festivals and guest clinician at an All-State Music Festival. He has also resumed private teaching- both piano and voice.

In October 2011, Roy attended his 50th reunion from the University of Vermont, and performed with two classmates at the banquet. The trio were members of the circa 1961 "Festival Minstrels"-from the Champlain Shakespeare Festival, and had not seen each other in 50 years, but when they stepped onstage at the re-union it was just like they had performed the night before.

This past summer, Roy made his way to Hampshire College in Amherst, MA to attend the annual Summer Conference for Choral Musicians sponsored by the American Choral Director's Association, his time for rejuvenation and preparation for the 2013-14 season.

The Chorale thanks those who have supported us with Raffle Prizes

Accompanist

Matthew J. Jaroszewicz

Matthew Jenkins Jaroszewicz is a 2012 graduate of Brown University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music, and is currently pursuing a career as a conductor. In addition to accompanying the Charles River Chorale, he is the Organist/Choir-master at St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Holliston, and Music Director of the Wakefield Choral Society. Matthew first became interested in conducting in high school, but it was at Brown where his interest turned into a career path. He began as music director of Brown Univ. Gilbert & Sullivan, (BUGS). While conducting and performing with them, he served as one of the groups' primary accompanists. He continues his involvement with BUGS as a resident of Providence.

Matthew also sang in Brown's Disney A Cappella group, became their music director in 2012 and wrote several arrangements for them. Additionally, he played 1st Tenor Sax. for four years in the Brown Univ. Jazz Band, and sang in the choir of Grace Episcopal Church in Providence, under the direction of Mark Johnson.

In the summer of 2010, Matthew directed and conducted over 70 people in his own production of Ralph Vaughan Williams' opera "The Pilgrim's Progress" at Christ Church Cathedral in Cincinnati, Ohio.

He continued to pursue his interest in Vaughan Williams' music by conducting the opera "Riders to the Sea" as a senior project at Brown in 2012.

Matthew has studied conducting at the 2011 New York Summer Music Festival, with James Fellenbaum, and the 2011 Atlantic Music Festival, studying with Jonathan Schiffman. This past summer, he attended the Spazio Musica Opera Workshop, in Orvieto, Italy, where he studied conducting with Vittorio Parisi and worked on a production of Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro".

Matthew is a native of Cincinnati where he attended both the School for Creative and Performing Arts, and Walnut Hills High School, graduating in 2008. He studied classical piano from 1996-2006 with Irina Minevich. Away from the keyboard and podium, Matthew is an avid runner and swimmer, training for and competing in numerous half marathons, open water swims, and swim meets. He is also an ardent and devoted fan of the Cincinnati Reds.
