would sit at the top of the stairs watching the dark Christmas tree. I could see that Santa had come,
but I wasn't allowed down stairs until Santa turned the tree lights on.
When he was a safe
distance away the tree
lights would magically turn on! All the presents he brought would be spilling out from under the tree. It was simply magical.

A Note from the Director

Dear Audience,

Holiday greetings! First, let me begin by saying what a joy it has been to join the Charles River Chorale as their new director. The board and choir members are amazing individuals who have a truly special investment in the group and its success. I look forward to making music together for seasons to come.

This year's concert repertoire was picked to reflect the feeling of wonderment that many of us have been fortunate enough to experience at some point in our lives, perhaps during the holiday season. The program takes us through some of the greatest moments of wonderment we may enjoy: Wonderment in Experiencing a Higher Power, Wonderment in Finding True Love, Wonderment in Welcoming New Life, and finally Wonderment in the Magic of Children. I asked chorale members to share some of their moments of wonderment through words or pictures in this year's program booklet; perhaps you will consider your own childhood or current feelings of wonderment during this special time of year.

The Charles River Children's Choir will be leading us in our annual sing-along. I hope you will join us singing with spirit and be joyful in the Magic of Children.

Thank you for attending this year's winter concert and have a happy and healthy New Year.

~ Ashley

Five Hebrew Love Songs

1. Temuna (A Picture)
A picture, engraved in one's heart and

2. Kala Kallah (Light bride)
She is all mine; we will kiss.
3. Larov (Mostly)

4. Eyze sheleg! (What snow)

Tenderness that he showed her, through

He was born into the world, and laid in a manger

in a stable for animals,
the master of the heavens.
The prince of Hell has lost his spoils.

Three Magi came,
they were bearing gifts,
and sought the little one,
following a star,
to worship him,
and offer him gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
Let all priests
just like the boys

"You have come to the world,
I pour out praises to You.
Therefore, glory to God in the highest!"
